

Dana Countryman's Pop Scrapbook

PRESS RELEASE

Quickly following Dana Countryman's 2020 album "Come Into My Studio", comes 2021's "Pop Scrapbook"! Each year, Countryman writes and produces his particular brand of original retro pop, written in the style of music of the '60s and '70s. Going back over the years, Dana Countryman's music has been heard on FOX TELEVISION, THE ARSENIO HALL SHOW, THE DR. DEMENTO SHOW, THE JERRY LEWIS TELETHON, THE A&E NETWORK and many others. With various musical groups, he's performed many times both in Europe and America. One of his songs was even featured on Comedy Central's wacked-out TV series, "SOUTH PARK".

In addition to the musical dedication to his trademark sounds of '60s and '70s, with this new album Countryman adds a few new styles to his song writing bag of tricks, writing new tunes in the styles of jazz, country and even progressive rock.

Comments about "Pop Scrapbook" include:

Bruce Brodeen of PopGeekHeaven says "Dana's music reminds me of listening to the AM radio on a sunny, summer beach afternoon, back in 1975: easy, breezy, sweet days, tinged with a light, well-timed cool breeze. It reminds me of a simpler, joy-filled time from my happy music past."

Gene Good of Pop Forever says "We need music like this in these crazy times!"

Nadja Dee of Hop On Power Pop says "If you love music from a different time, when American wasn't hiding behind masks from a pandemic, this is for you. If you feel that we're in a time when sadly civil rights, race wars and the work of suffragettes makes it seem like were still in the dark ages, and if you long for more innocent, wholesome days, then pick up this album. It's fun, well-written, well-performed American adult contemporary music that is the perfect antidote to a hectic work day, when you need to unwind."

In addition to many top-notch musicians, special musical guests on "Pop Scrapbook" include Probyn Gregory of the Brian Wilson Band, Nick Frater, Billy Stritch, Scott McPherson, as well as two members from Klaatu: Dee Long, and Terry Draper.

Gilbert O'Sullivan, Grammy Award-winning singer-songwriter says: "When it comes to arrangements and production, Dana Countryman's songs themselves are very well-constructed with good melodies and hook lines. Dana's music calls to mind and fully evokes in an enjoyable way, The Beach Boys and The Carpenters, -- musically and harmony-wise, which is no bad comparison!"

"Pop Scrapbook" is available as a physical CD from both JAM Recordings, Kool Kat Records, and as a digital download from Bandcamp.com.
